

Lozenge

The lozenge has for many centuries been particularly associated with women as a vehicle for the display of their coats of arms.

Shield Shapes

To center any of these shields, use point R or Q.

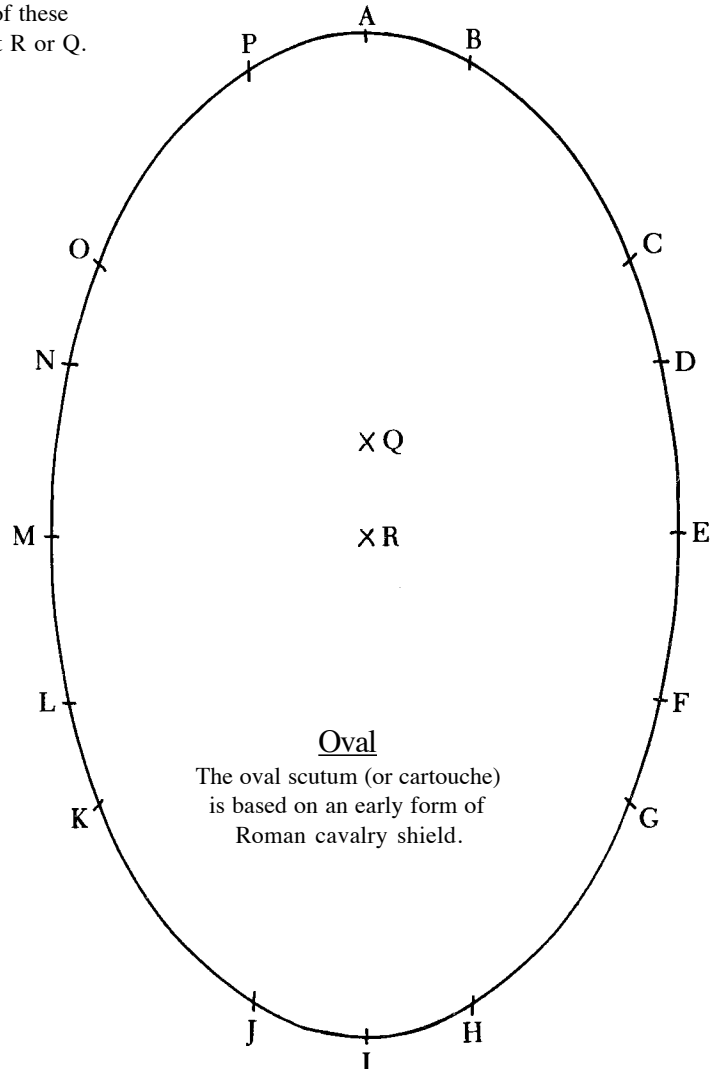

Heater

The heater shield or heater-shaped shield is a form of European medieval shield, developing from the early medieval kite shield in the mid 13th century.

Polish Jousting

Oval

The oval scutum (or cartouche) is based on an early form of Roman cavalry shield.

